IN YOUR CORNER

You don't have to figure it all out alone.

WHY I CREATED IN YOUR CORNER

During my career I've worked with and developed some incredible people.

One thing became clear to me time and time again. The biggest challenges were never the meetings. They were the moments afterwards.

The decision you weren't quite ready to make. The presentation tomorrow morning. The question you didn't feel comfortable asking your manager.

That's why I created In Your Corner. To give ambitious people somewhere to turn when they need honest advice, practical support and an experienced perspective.

THIS MIGHT BE FOR YOU IF:

You've taken on more responsibility and sometimes wonder if you're making the right decisions.

You care about becoming better, not just climbing the career ladder.

You replay conversations in your head and think, "I wish I'd said that differently."

You wish you had someone to ask the questions you don't feel comfortable asking at work.

You value honest advice over easy answers.

You'd benefit from having someone experienced in your corner when important moments arrive.

WHAT CHANGES WHEN YOU HAVE SOMEONE IN YOUR CORNER

GREATER CLARITY

Step back, think more clearly and approach challenges with a fresh perspective.

BETTER DECISIONS

Talk important decisions through before you make them, not after you've made them.

CONFIDENCE WHEN IT MATTERS MOST

Walk into important conversations knowing you've prepared with someone experienced.

A SAFE PLACE TO THINK OUT LOUD

Test ideas, ask difficult questions and work through challenges without judgement.

HONEST SUPPORT

Encouragement when you need it. Honest challenges when it matters. Always in your best interests.

INDEPENDENT ADVICE

Objective advice from someone whose only priority is helping you make the right decision.

HERE'S WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

YOUR SOUNDING BOARD

Ask questions, share ideas or send a voice note whenever you need a second opinion. I'll reply with practical advice and honest feedback within the agreed response times.

MONTHLY PULSE CHECK

A dedicated one to one conversation to reset, reflect and tackle whatever's on your mind.

MONTHLY ROUNDTABLE

Share experiences, discuss challenges and learn from ambitious professionals across different industries and backgrounds.

MONTHLY INSIGHT LETTER

Practical lessons from leadership, commercial decision-making and the challenges ambitious people face every day.

CURATED INTRODUCTIONS

As the membership grows, I'll introduce people who I genuinely believe could help, support or inspire one another.

THE KIND OF CONVERSATIONS WE HAVE

Every month is different. Sometimes you need help preparing for an important conversation. Other times you simply need an experienced perspective before making a decision. These are the kind of conversations members regularly bring to me.

COMMERCIAL CHALLENGES

Working through difficult customer situations, commercial decisions and business challenges.

LEADERSHIP CHALLENGES

Managing people, handling difficult conversations and becoming the leader others need you to be.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Building confidence, preparing for promotions and taking the next step in your career.

WHATEVER COMES UP

Not everything fits neatly into a category. Sometimes you need someone you trust to help you think clearly.

"When work and life collide, sometimes you simply need someone you trust to help you think clearly."
